Anna Plank

Ania Plank has been teaching at the Bilingual Translation course at Westminster University since the introduction of the Polish Module in 2000 and has taught at the translation, interpreting and editing modules. Educated at the University of Warsaw, she holds a Master's degree in English Language and Literature. After graduating she taught for several years at the University of Warsaw, also sitting on entrance examination boards. Since her move to the UK she taught Polish at further education colleges and worked for many years as translator and interpreter, running her own translation company. She has written several phrase books and travel companions. She holds other professional qualifications, such as certified court interpreter, and is a full member of the Institute of Linguists. She specialises in medical, pharmaceutical and technical texts related to science and research.
